MISSIONARY WORK.

SESSION OF THE OHIO CHRISTIAN MIS SIONARY SOCIETY.

An Address on India by One Who Has Heen There-Routine Business and an Interesting Address on Japan and Japanese Customs.

Perhaps never before in the history of the First Baptist church has such a mass of people filled the auditorium of that handsome structure, as the audience which listened Tuesday night to Rev. M. D. Adams's lecture on "India," There were hundreds of missionary society delegates and equally as great a number of Canton listeners. This formed the evening session of the Ohio Christian Missionary Society, and praise service was conducted by Aleine Baker of Williams county. "Ohio and the West" was elucidated in a brief address by S. E. Young of Hiram. The lecture by Rev. Adams was a most interesting and theoretical one, in which the missionary methods of inculcating religion into the minds of the heathen vas clearly explained. Wednesday morning's session of the convention opened in the Disciple church with sunrise meeting, led by J. F. Crites of Salvina, O. Devotional exercises and reports of district, county and state committees on work followed, the latter showing a goodly work being done among he church people for missionary causes.

Missionary George T. Smith, of Tokio, lapan, entertained the assembly the balance of the morning with an address on his doings in Japan. He spoke of the customs of the Japanese and their various modes of worship. His address was brilliant and well prepared.

Unfinished business was taken up after dinner Wednesday, when J. P. Ewing, of Jackson followed with an address on the religious education of young people and preparing them for the church. E, B, Wakefield, of Hiram, dilated on the future of international Sunday school lessons while A. B. Cholmers, of Cleveland spoke fifteen minutes on city missions. C. J. Tanner, of Cincinnati, addressed the convention on missionary managers, and Prof. James Cholmers, of Columbus stated in a short address what he knew of inerest about prepared teachers.

Tonight's session will open at 7 o'clock. After opening devotional exercises have been dispensed with, Rev. Sweeney, of Columbus, Ind., will speak on "The Gauge of Soundness," His remarks will be of interest to all workers in the missionary cause and a most eloquent address is expected, as Rev. Sweeney served as consul to Constantinople under Harrison.

CUPID'S DISCIPLES.

Marriage of Popular Canal Fulton

People. St. Philip and James church was the scene of a large and select audience, May 23rd, gathered to witness the marriage of Mr. Henry L. Murphy, the popular and gentlemanly clerk in E. R. Held's grocery, to Miss Lizzie Lubbe, one of Fulton's most charming and accomplished young ladies. The wedding party arrived at the church at 9 o'clock, and proceeded up the main aisle to the sweet strains of Mendlesshon's Grand March. First came the ushers, Mesers. E. J. Murphy and Ed. J. Walzer; then the maid of honor, Miss Nettle Helfrich, followed by the at-tendants, Mr. E. J. Hammer and Miss Frankie E. Murphy, sister of the groom, W. H. Sullivan and Miss Clara Labbe, sister of the bride. As the attendants reached the sanctuary they paused and the contracting parties proceeded to the altar where they were met by Rev. Father Kuehler, and the marriage vows were pronounced. Solemn High Mass followed, Revs, J. F. Kuehler, celebrant; T. F. W. Mahon, deacon; N. Kirch, sub-deacon, respectively.

The choir, of which the bride has been the leading soprano for years, sang "Missa Solemnis," and rendered it in a manner that met the approval of the best critics in the large audience.

The alter was testily decreated in blace. The altar was tastily decorated in lilacs and lillies, the language of which, "My only love," "Purity and Sweetness" was only love," "Purity and Sweetness" was most appropriate.

It is conceded that the sky and flowers are the most beautiful things in nature, but we think, were a bride, such as was led to the altar Tuesday, added to these, the galaxy would be complete.

The bride wore a delicate pink tinted creps de chene entrain, trimmed in Spanish lace, and carried Immaculata roses. The groom appeared at his best in the conventional black, Miss Clara Labbe, the first bridesmaid wore a Nile green China silk and carried Catherine Mermet roses. Miss Frankie E. Murphy, the second bridesmaid, wore a handsome lavander silk trimmed in lace and carried Marshal Neil roses.

After the ceremony at the church, the wedding party and some sixty-five invited guests repaired to the home of the bride, South Canal street, where a feast, in true epicurean style, was served at 11:30. The happy couple were the recipients of many choice and valuable presents. The bridal pair left on the evening train for a true through the south. The various for a trip through the south. They expect to be absent about two weeks, after which they will be at home to their friends in their neatly furnished residence, North

The out of town guesis were: Rev. N. Kirch, Navarre; Rev. T. F. W. Mahon, Massillon; Mrs. J. W. Dill and Mrs. Wm. Bernower, Canton; Mrs. M. E. Sullivan and Mr. George Mellon, Massillon; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Edward Schnegg Receives Internal In-juries Which May Prove Fatal.

A careful examination has been made into Edward Schnegg's condition, and the injuries both external and internal may possibly prove fatal. Drs. Pyle and Landor discovered an internal injury just above the heart, and that the boy's ribs had been crushed in so as to produce results internally which in many cases prove fatal. During the day symptoms have developed which tend to lessen the hope for his ultimate recovery even be-fore an operation can be performed. Schengg has about recovered from the terrible shock caused by the wrenching off of his arm, but internal conditions are very unfavorable. The left lung appears to have been perforated and this alone places the patient in immediate danger, as the injury incapacitates that organ from doing its work.
